A guide to your new home and workplace

Echuca, Vic

Be at the heart of it in Echuca.

Echuca is that unique blend of charm and tranquillity that you only get when it's set against a backdrop like Australia's iconic Murray River. Life here revolves around that river, whether it's cruising on a historic paddle steamer, fishing along the banks, or simply enjoying riverside walks. Echuca's community is tight-knit and welcoming, with a laid-back atmosphere that encourages a slower pace of life. The town boasts a thriving food scene, with local eateries offering fresh produce and regional specialties. For those seeking outdoor adventure, the surrounding region provides ample opportunities for bushwalking, camping, and exploring nearby national parks.

Echuca was once the largest inland port in Australia, during the late 19th century, when it served as a vital hub for the trade along the Murray River.

Your new workplace in Echuca

Welcome to Bupa Echuca, a modern care home located near the bucolic banks of the Murray and Campaspe rivers in Victoria.

We're always actively engaging with the community through events, and we love to encourage families and friends to join in too. This could be through our days out, community visits, or our wonderful events that we host at the home.

We're a multi-cultural home, and we celebrate this fact. We're extremely proud of our diverse, caring team, and we love to connect our staff with their shared communities in Echuca to help ease their transition into living and working here. This has resulted in wonderful life-long friendships among people from all walks of life.

We work hard to fill our home with joy and laughter, and we've developed a range of programs to help our staff thrive in their careers, including our highly successful trainee carer programs. We are now seeing the fruits of how this program has helped empower our staff, and improve the quality of life for our patients. Joining Bupa Echuca means you get to be part of this, too..

We can't wait to work with you!

Living in Echuca offers a wonderful blend of riverfront charm, rich history, and relaxed country living. Located along the picturesque Murray River in northern Victoria, Echuca is known for its historic port precinct, where iconic paddle steamers once plied their trade during the 19th century river trade era.

Today, Echuca is a vibrant regional town with a strong sense of community. Residents enjoy a laid-back atmosphere, easy access to outdoor activities like boating, fishing, and bushwalking, and a burgeoning food scene showcasing local produce. With its mild Mediterranean climate, Echuca offers a pleasant environment year-round, making it an inviting place to live for those seeking a balance between small-town charm and modern convenience.

Getting Around

Public transport in Echuca is primarily served by bus services operated by Public Transport Victoria. The bus network connects Echuca with surrounding towns and areas within the region. However, it's important to note that public transport options in regional areas like Echuca may be more limited compared to larger cities.

The bus services in Echuca typically run on scheduled routes with designated stops, covering key areas within the town and nearby areas. These buses provide essential transport links for residents and visitors, especially those commuting within Echuca and accessing nearby facilities and services.

Echuca is also well-connected by roadways, making private vehicle travel a common mode of transport for many residents. Due to the town's relatively compact size, walking and cycling can also be convenient options for getting around locally.

For longer-distance travel, residents often rely on private vehicles or regional coach services for journeys to larger cities like Melbourne, which is approximately a 3-hour drive away.

While Echuca's public transport network may not be as extensive as in major urban centres, it provides essential connectivity within the town and to nearby areas, complementing other modes of available transportation.

Airport

The nearest airport to Echuca is the Bendigo Airport (also known as Bendigo Regional Airport), located approximately 2 hours south of Echuca by car. Bendigo Airport serves as the closest regional airport offering domestic flights within Victoria.

Bendigo Airport provides flights to Melbourne, which is the main gateway for domestic and international travel in the region.

For international travellers or those seeking more extensive flight options, Melbourne Airport is the nearest major airport, situated approximately 200 kilometres south of Echuca. Melbourne Airport is a major hub for both domestic and international flights, offering connections to destinations across Australia and the world.
